It is our privilege and honour to announce that we will be releasing Inner Surge's next CD, "Signals Screaming". This marks the follow-up to their critically acclaimed "Matrika."

Inner Surge: Signals Screaming
Cyclone Records
Release Date: March 2006

Inner Surge is an intense, politically and emotionally charged metal/punk band from Calgary, Alberta who is on the verge of breaking the international scene with their inclusion on the "Cabras" horror movie soundtrack.

Inner Surge is the only Canadian band to be confirmed for soundtrack. Their aggressive, eclectic sound and rapidly growing fan base helped earn them the spot. They will be filming a video for their hardcore/metal track "Retribution Song", a song about human rights partially inspired by the May 13 Uzbekistan massacre. Learn more about Inner Surge at www.innersurge.com.

In early 2006, the "Cabras" motion picture will become the first independent film to offer their entire official soundtrack's music videos for download on the new video iPods. There will be a total of 20 music videos available from artists such as Inner Surge, Vans Warped Tour 2005 veterans New Crash Position, Florida's hard rockers A New Way Down, dynamic rock band The Morning After, alternative metal band CEDE, along with 15 other videos/bands. All the videos will be directed by "Cabras" director Fredy Polania.

With 20 music videos being featured alongside this metal/rock/punk soundtrack, this marks a revolution in independent music for independent movie soundtracks. Fredy Polania wanted to approach the soundtrack in an innovative way, by choosing what were in his view the best independent bands across North America.
